The Patience Essah Africana Studies Lecture Series
Co-sponsored with the RBD Library and Archives
Follow links to view the associated vimeo presentations

2015
September 17, 2015 – Carla Bell, Multicultural Affairs, Architecture-Design and Construction
October 22, 2015 - Stacye Nickson, K-12 Outreach
All talks are in the Caroline Marshall Draughon Auditorium, on the ground floor of the Ralph Brown Draughon Library, 3:30 to 4:15
Refreshments and conversation with the speakers follow the presentations

2014
September 18 - David Carter, Department of History
AGhosts of Mississippi: Freedom Summer, 1964, A Fifty Year Retrospective@
October 23 - Mitchell Browne and Kathleen Hale, Political Science Department
AThe Voting Rights Act and Judicial Professionalization of Race in American Elections@
November 13 - Adrienne Duke, Department of Human Development and Family Studies
AAfricana Studies, Human Development, and Outreach: Exploring how to affect change locally and globally@

2013
September 19 - Shakeer Abdullah, former Director AU Multicultural Center
AWho is Best Prepared to Support African American Students in Higher Education?@
October 17 - Kristrina Schuler, Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Social Work
AThe Life Stresses of Caribbean Slavery: Bioarcheological Reaearch at Newton Plantation, Barbados@
November 21 - Dr. Carol Ann Balch Dennis, Department of History, Alabama State University
AWhispers of Freedom: Exploring Laura Beecher Comer=s Diary Through the Prism of the Comer Slaves= Resistance@

2012
October 18 - Jaean Alabi, Ralph Brown Draughon Library
"Microaggressions"
November 15 - Kathryn Floyd
"Georges Adéagbo"