

PASAQUAN

THE TRANSCENDENT EXPERIENCE
OF VISIONARY LANDSCAPES

• FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2017 • 8:45 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. •

Join us for a symposium and field trip to discover Pasaquan, the visionary art environment of self-taught Southern artist Eddie Owens Martin, in Buena Vista, Georgia. Pasaquan is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is considered among the most important visionary art environments in the United States.

We will begin the day with talks on self-taught artists by Dr. Keith Hebert, Department of History, and Dr. Emily Burns, Department of Art and Art History at Pebble Hill in Auburn, and then travel to Pasaquan for a tour led by site director Professor Michael McFalls of Columbus State University.

Sponsored by the Caroline Marshall Draughon Center for the Arts & Humanities at Pebble Hill. There is no cost to attend. Students who register for the symposium will receive lunch and transportation to Pasaquan. Space is limited, so reserve your seat now!
