College of Liberal Arts
Summer in Aberystwyth, Wales, UK

The College of Liberal Arts offers an intensive academic program in Aberystwyth, Wales, UK for undergraduates from Auburn University as well as other colleges. Students will take one course co-taught by Auburn and Aberystwyth faculty members and one course taught by Aberystwyth University faculty, for a total of 6 credits.

Students will stay on Penglais Campus, the main Aberystwyth University campus which is in Aberystwyth, a coastal town at the centre of Wales’s beautiful Cardigan Bay, with air, rail and road links to the rest of the UK.

As part of the program we invite you to explore the historic coastline of Wales with its many medieval castles, mountains and beaches.

Excursions
The program includes day trips: destinations may include: Harlech Castle and Caernarfon Castle (North Wales); Snowdonia (North Wales); Tintern Abbey (Gwent), Strata Florida Abbey (Aberystwyth area).

For more information
Contact programme leaders:
Dr. Giovanna Summerfield - summegi@auburn.edu

Institute for Literature Languages and Creative Arts
Aberystwyth University
illcasummerschool@aber.ac.uk

This is a new program running from 2015. Be the first cohort and then report back to us so we can put your soundbite up on the web for the following year.