AUBURN UNIVERSITY SINGERS’ AUDITIONS

Thank you for your interest in the Auburn University Singers. The group consists of 36 vocalists, 8-10 instrumentalists, and technical support personnel. While considered full members of the group, they serve as "understudies" for those who can't perform for any reason.

Auditions for instrumentalists are held during the first week of the semester. Look for announcements in all campus media for exact dates and times.

Vocal auditions for the 2012-2013 AU Singers will be held at the Goodwin Music Building in Room 112 on the following dates:

- April 17, 6:30-8:30 p.m.
- April 24, 7:30-10:00 p.m.
- June 15, 1:00-5:00 p.m.
- July 20, 1:00-5:00 p.m.
- August 18, 2:00-5:00 p.m.
- August 19, 10:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m.

Audition times must be scheduled with Dr. Farmer through email (farmew1@auburn.edu) or on the auditions link on the Music Department website.

Audition requirements are as follows:
1. Complete an information form and sign a contract stating they understand and agree to the requirements of group participation.

2. Prepare a very short solo (not more than 2 minutes). This song can be ANY style, but should reflect your greatest vocal strengths. It can be with or without accompaniment. We will provide media equipment for CD tracks and mp3 format. While we do not provide an accompanist, you are welcome to bring your own.

3. Each student will be taught a 16-count dance combination and then asked to present the combination alone.

4. Perform vocal exercises to determine range at the direction of the auditioning personnel.

5. Sing back played tone combinations to assess tonal recall.

Shortly after the last audition date, all those who audition will be notified by email whether they have been selected to participate in the Auburn University Singers for the upcoming school year.
