

SASW Mentoring

The department chair meets with assistant professors at least once per semester as a group and as often as necessary in individual meetings. All facets of professional activity and university policy are discussed.